

Handwritten text, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to blurring and is arranged in two lines.

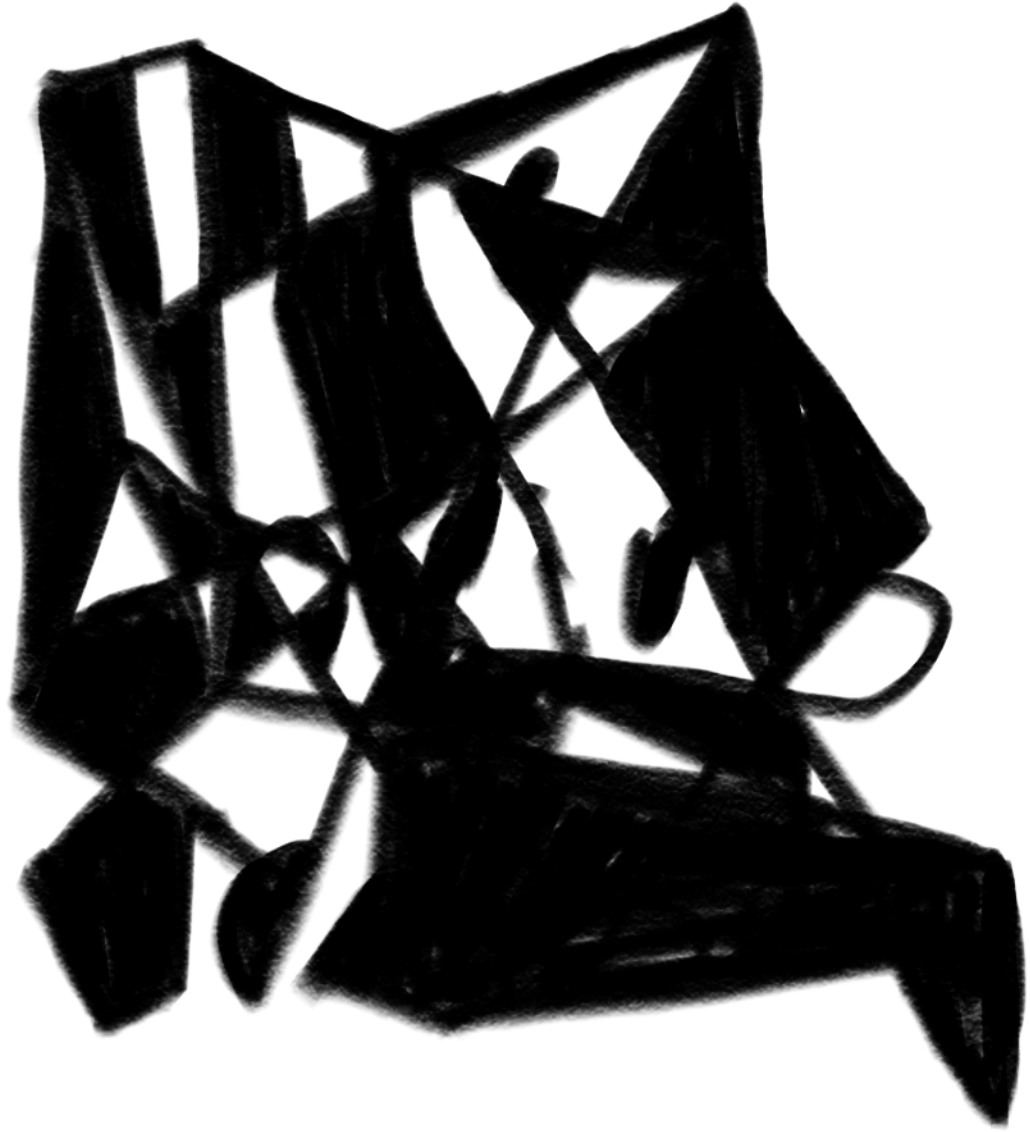

Handwritten text in a stylized, blocky font, possibly representing a specific dialect or a highly stylized script. The text is arranged in approximately seven lines, with varying lengths and spacing between characters. The characters are thick and black, with some irregular edges, suggesting they were drawn with a marker or thick pen. The overall appearance is that of a rough, expressive sketch or a piece of experimental typography.
